

Employee Assistance Counseling Program

Caring for Each Other

The Employee Assistance Counseling Program, or EACP, is open to all Cone Health employees and their immediate household family members. Services offered by EACP include, but are not limited to: assessment of problems; counseling for individuals, couples, or families; counseling for adults, adolescents, or children; or referral to other specialized services.

All EACP services are confidential and professional. Voluntary use of EACP services will not be noted in any employee record or known by your managers.

Why Use EACP?

EACP helps to minimize or prevent problems from negatively altering relationships, work abilities, and life satisfaction.

EACP can help with the following issues:

- Stress
- Marital Conflict
- Depression
- Grief and Loss
- Anxiety
- Parenting Problems
- Workplace Challenges
- And much more...

What are some of EACP's benefits?

- No arbitrary limit to the number of sessions
- No cost to you
- On-Call Services 24/7/365
